

Ref no: 222300316
From: Research
Date: 30/03/16
Subject: Termination of pregnancies

REQUEST & RESPONSE

My name is Annie Wood, I am a fourth year medical student at Peninsula Medical School Universities of Exeter and Plymouth, currently based at the Royal Cornwall Hospital Trust in Truro.

I am part of a small group conducting research into existing healthcare provisions for termination of pregnancies across all NHS trusts in England. Consultant Mr. Jonathan Lord of Royal Cornwall Hospital is taking lead in this research project.

- Name of person giving information
Beverley Hague
- Role of person giving information
Womens Outpatient manager
- Do you provide medical abortions at home?
No
 - To what gestation?
- Do you provide medical abortion in hospital?
Medical terminations are provided for Foetal Abnormality
 - To what gestation?
No limit
- Do you provide surgical abortion under general anaesthetic?
- Surgical terminations are provided for Foetal Abnormality
 - To what gestation?
13+0
- Do you provide surgical abortion under local anaesthetic (e.g. MVA)?
No
 - To what gestation?
- Do you offer surgical abortion to women with fetal anomalies diagnosed in the second trimester via the obstetric service?
No
 - To what gestation?
- If you do not provide all methods of abortion (medical, surgical under local and general), do you offer patients that choice and refer them to another provider?
Yes

- Do you offer a full range of long acting contraception (i.e. implant, Mirena, IUCD) at the time of the surgical procedure?
No
- Is counselling from a trained counsellor available in clinic, before, during or after the termination?
Yes
- For follow up with medical abortion, do you offer telephone clinics, hospital visit or a choice?
Yes. Hospital visit.
- Do other providers offer abortions to your population? If so, who?
BPAS