REQUEST

My name is Miglena Fox and I am a master's degree student in clinical research at Sheffield University. At the moment I work on a project that requires me to find out how many vials of Synacthen 250mcg/ml injection have been used in hospitals in UK.

Would you happen to have this kind of data for the Synacthen 250mcg/1ml injection for your trust for the last 5 to 10 years please?

Is this information available through you? If not could you please let me know if you know where it would be available from?
