RESPONSE

Do you provide an accommodation service to employees & new starters?

The Trust provides on-call/ relatives and residential accommodation for its staff.

Please provide how many rooms you have available to staff

The Trust has 24 on-call/ relatives rooms internally within the hospital, and leases a number of external properties currently providing 42 single rooms.

How much do you charge per night for a short let, and how much per month for longer lets.

The Trust doesn't charge for on-call staff and relative's accommodation on site, but charges £20 per night for short-term letting, and between £450-£595 p.c.m. for longer term letting in off-site accommodation. These charges include all utilities, Council Tax , utilities, TV Licence, cleaning and laundry.

Do you have any packages in place for new starters to the organisation in regards to accommodation? If so, please provide details

We provide a subsidised introductory rental package, and information pack for overseas recruits on occupation.

Do you work in partnership with other organisations to provide an accommodation service? i.e. Housing association

Currently the Trust is working with a Housing Association to provide additional accommodation to aid in the recruitment of overseas staff.

How much is your annual spend on Trust owned accommodation services?

As indicated above, the Trust does not own accommodation.
